YALE AND PRINCETON REST BEFORE TO-MORROW'S GAME

Coaches Won't Take Chances of Injuring Star Players at Practice.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PRINCETON, Nov. 14.—The Tiger team has finished its season of preparation for the Yale game and is spending to-day in eager anticipation for the contest to-morrow. Orange and black colors are beginning to wave more enthusiastically. The team is the best one the season can produce at Princeton. That the men are all in good physical condition and that the team is the best one on the Princeton gridiron for three years are some of the things which help to buoy the Princeton followers' hopes up.

Tigertown is almost ignorant of what the Yale team can do, but it does know that in the line which will fight for old Eli there are men whose prowess at football and heavy weights have made them famous in football lore. However, Princeton is far from being downcast. To-day the students are more decided in their predictions of victory than at any time before this season. The Yale team is estimated with her team. If Yale has a better team they are willing to let Yale have the game for the world's prize.

Yesterday the students formed an anti-monster parade and marched to the field and returned. The parade was a success. A brass band was in attendance. The little tiger mascot was not in a humor to be moved from its cage, and so did not appear on the field. There are increased rumors that the Yale team is coming to bring good fortune to the team.

This afternoon the practice will be held as the coaches want to give the men a rest and eliminate the danger of further injuries. All the men are in better condition than was generally expected and it seems now as if both Rose McVey and Bradley will be able to play almost the entire game against Yale.

Yesterday the varsity scored six touchdowns against the scrubs, and one of them was made on a run of the entire length of the field by S. McChave.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 14.—Yale has had her last practice before the game with the Tigers to-morrow, and if the work is any criterion the Tigers won't be prevented from scoring. Every man in the varsity squad was on the field, and every man who will face Princeton was in line in his place. The coaches had the men working on their signals and formations during the entire secret practice.

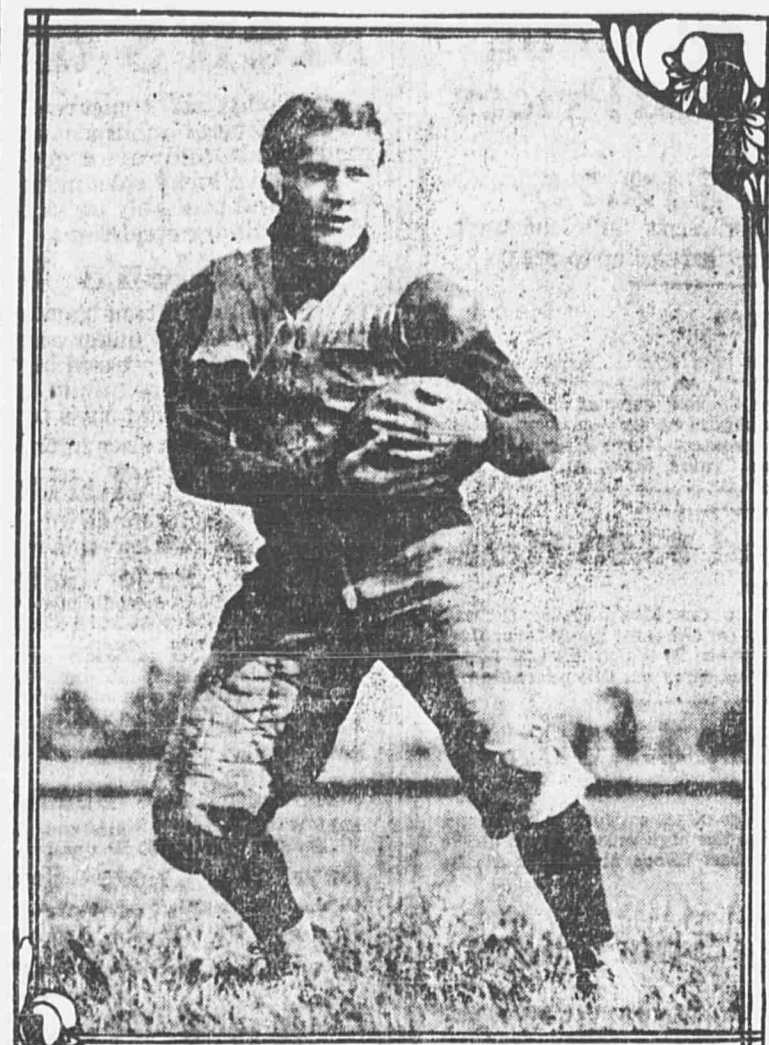

The Yale team leaves here at 10 o'clock to-night. They will spend the night at the Murray Hill, leaving New York at 10:55 to-morrow morning on a special for Princeton. They will spend to-morrow night in New York and return to New Haven Sunday afternoon. The open practice lasted only a few minutes. Metcalf and Chadwick were given very little work, but the remainder of the team were in their regular places and worked as hard as ever. Vanderpool was at half back and Ward at right half during most of the open practice.

A large crowd of students met at the gate in the afternoon and from there marched into the field in a body. The spirit and enthusiasm during the past week has been gradually increasing, and the best singing and cheering that has yet been heard this year was heard this afternoon at the field. Every one entered into the spirit of the rally in a way that left no doubt in the minds of the men on the team as to the feeling of the university.

A large crowd of students are going to accompany the team to Princeton. They will be on a train together and cheer it on to victory.

CAPT. DAVIS, WHO WILL LEAD TIGERS IN BATTLE.

CAPT. DAVIS OF PRINCETON CATCHING A PICK UP

PIENING AND BOTHNER WILL WRESTLE IN PUBLIC.

Managers of Men Decide to Hold Bout at Grand Central Palace Nov. 2.

The handpick wrestling match between John Piening, the middle-weight champion of the National Wrestling Association, and George Bothner, the noted catch-as-catch-can expert, will take place on Nov. 21 at the Grand Central Palace. Forty-third street and Lexington avenue, where the "Butcher Boy" made his first professional appearance against Paul Pons, the giant champion of France, and where he defeated Nehemiah Nachod, the "Terrible Turk," and Raoul de Cahours, the big Frenchman. The men were originally matched to wrestle in private in the big gymnasium of the Kalkreuths A. C., where Bothner was the wrestling instructor, but the custodian appointed by the assignee of that famous clubhouse would not give his consent. Owing to the great demand for tickets an advance sale will commence to-morrow at all the leading hotels and sporting resorts. Hugh Leonard, of the New York A. C., will be the referee, and Sam D. See, of the National Wrestling Association, will be the timekeeper. The preliminaries between heavyweights of recognized ability at Gracioso-Roman and catch-as-catch-can style of wrestling will precede the main event.

GANS DEFENDS HIS TITLE AGAINST SIEGER TO-NIGHT.

They Will Meet in Twenty-Round Contest in Baltimore—Temple-Stiff Fight.

The pugilistic card offered for to-night consists of two battles. The principals in these encounters will be Joe Gans, the light-weight champion of the world, and Charlie Sieger, the Houcken light-weight, and Billy Stiff, the hard-hitting middle-weight, of Chicago, and Larry Temple, of this city, the colored water-weight.

Gans and Sieger will try conclusions in a twenty-round bout before the Purcell A. C. of Baltimore, while Stiff and Temple will clash for six rounds before the Transport A. C. of Chicago.

The Gans-Sieger bout will in all probability be a one-sided affair, while that between Stiff and Temple should result in one of the hardest fought battles ever seen in Chicago.

Rieger has no chance of beating Gans, and if he lasts six rounds he will be doing very good. Sieger is just the kind of a fighter Gans likes to meet. The Houcken man is slow on his feet and, besides, fights with a low guard, which will give Gans a splendid opportunity to use his well known jab. Sieger will probably think Gans is throwing boxing gloves at him before the bout goes two or three rounds.

Stiff is the manager of Sieger, has bet Al Herford $250 that Sieger will last ten rounds. This appears like a foolish bet. The battle between Stiff and Temple will be worth seeing, for the last time these men fought they slugged each other for six rounds, and Stiff was awarded the decision. Temple, however, will fight Stiff differently to-night and is certain he will carry off the decision.

has arranged in the Quaker City since Monday night.

His opponent will be "Cockey" Boyle, the aggressive feather-weight fighter, of Philadelphia, who gave Willie Mack such a hard fight recently. They will meet in a six-round bout before the Washington Sporting Club, of Philadelphia, on Monday night. Boyle will probably give "Cockey" a hard fight, as he was regarded as one of the most promising lighters in Quakerstown a few years ago. "Cockey" will also box Billy Maynard, of this city, before the Penn Art A. C. of Philadelphia, on Nov. 26.

Sullivan to Fight in St. Louis.

Dave Sullivan, who is matched to fight Danny Yanger, of Chicago, for six rounds in the Windy City on Dec. 1, has another match on. He has been secured by Matchmaker Charles Haughton, of Brooklyn, to fight the Brooklyn feather-weight for twenty rounds before the best of the A. C. of St. Louis, on Nov. 20. The little Irishman will certainly have to fight his best in order to beat his opponent from Brooklyn. Tommy is in good shape now. They will box at 121 pounds. Jack McFadden will play by his will be matched to fight the winner.

Jack Johnson, the colored heavy-weight fighter, of California, is regarded as a wanderer by the sporting men of San Francisco. Johnson has won three fights during the last eight months, his last being Hank Griffin, the colored heavy-weight of Oakland, Cal. Frank Childs, the colored champion of Chicago, and George Gardner, the middle-weight champion of New England, who was regarded as an able opponent for Jim Jeffries, was a half from Sharkey or "Denver Ed" Martin.

Jack Jeffries, the Los Angeles heavy-weight and brother of the world's heavy-weight champion, Jim Jeffries, has issued a challenge to fight Jack Johnson, the colored champion of California, before the club offering the largest purse. Matchmaker McCarthy, of the Century A. C. of Los Angeles, has offered the men 50 per cent. of the gross weight of the bout, and it is expected that Johnson will do likewise.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE PUGILISTS.

"Young Corbett," the feather-weight champion, has signed articles for another contest to be decided in Philadelphia. It is the second match "Corbett"
